Description

Daily ART is a small family-owned business. We specialize in the manufacturing of waterborne art and craft paints and media and also combine different materials and offer creative kits: casting kits, art kits, adult craft sets. Daily ART artistic and craft media are non-toxic and comply with UK and EU regulations. Our products are safe for everyday use for you and/or for your customers. We supply under our brand and also offer Private label service. We strive for sustainability and carefully evaluate our sources of supply, manufacturing process, shipment, packaging choices. We constantly improve the utilization of resources within our company.
