Description

Barker Textiles produces high-quality wool and cotton home-textile products for customers in Europe and worldwide. We are known for flexible production services, adoption of customer designs and accommodation of specific customer needs and – due to our excellent location –efficient global logistics. With decades of experience in the textile business, we serve our home textile customers ranging from small design houses to large wholesalers – offering custom-made subcontracting services for their own private-label brands and designs. Bring your ideas to us and share your vision. WE BRING IDEAS TO LIFE!
