

Academic and educational services.<http://www.vgtu.lt/>

Dovile Jodenyte International Studies

Saulėtekio al. 11, LT-10223

Centre Senior Coordinator

Vilnius 111950243

tsc@vgtu.lt

52745026

Description

Vilnius Gediminas Technical University (VGTU) is an innovative Lithuanian University, educating highly qualified and creative specialists. The University is the leader among the institutions of technological science education, ensuring modern studies, orientated to the labor market. Scientific research and experimental development is performed by 14 institutes, 2 research centers and 34 research laboratories. Vilnius Gediminas Technical University encompasses the following: - Nearly 77.000 alumni over more than 60 years of the University's existence - More than 10.500 students - 10 faculties - 14 research institutes, 2 research and 4 training centres, 34 research laboratories - 940 academic staff members - Over 100 study programmes based on three-cycle structure: undergraduate, graduate and post-graduate studies - Over 400 business partners all over Lithuania - Over 500 partner higher education institutions all over the world.

Business Line

Higher education

List of products

Bachelor's, Master's and PhD study programmes in Engineering, Technology, Business and Architecture taught in English and Lithuanian languages. Vilnius Gediminas Technical University's research has always been focused on the European Research Area. Now, the main research areas integrate electronics, IT, transport and social sciences. VGTU organizes over 30 scientific conferences per year, both nationally and internationally, publishes 20 scientific journals, 12 of them together with publishing house "Taylor&Francis".

1001-100000000

0M - 0.2M

0

1956

Employees

Turnover, €

Export as % of

Year of establishment

turnover